5. Principles for the election of the Board members

- By adopting the cumulative voting method, under which each shareholder has a total number of votes corresponding to the total number of shares owned multiplied by the number of elected members of the Board of Directors, shareholders have the right to put all of their vote for one candidate or split votes for a number of candidates;
- The elected members of the Board of Directors shall be determined by votes from the highest to the lowest, starting from candidates with the highest number of votes until sufficient number of Board members is reached and the elected member must have at least 65% of the total number of votes for each candidate on the total number of voting shares of the shareholders attending the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- If the shareholders want to vote for a candidate, write the number of votes for that candidate to the column "number of votes";
- If the shareholders do not vote for a candidate, either leave the column blank or cross out the column "number of votes";

- Total number of votes for the candidates shall not exceed the total votes permitted by shareholders (number of shares multiplied by the number of members to be elected);

- Names of the candidates are printed in the voting card. Where the General Meeting of Shareholders decides to remove or supplement any candidate, the shareholders will rule out that candidate or add that candidate's name to the bottom of the list.

6. Announcing the electing decision

- Based on the minutes of the counting of votes, the election results of the Board of Directors will be announced at the meeting;

- The results will be recorded in the Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

7. Validity

This Regulation comes into effect immediately after the approval of the General Meeting of Shareholders and will only apply to the election of members of the Board of Directors for the term from 2014-2019.
